

Presents and Presence

The gift of Jesus' presence to the world is the greatest of presents. Through his presence in your heart and life, you are able to be present to others in love, caring, and concern. Write about some of the ways you can share your presence with others this Christmas season. Then answer the questions that follow.

How I Can Share My Presence

Why is it special to receive a Christmas card in which someone has taken the time to write a message?

What are the greatest presents you have ever received?

In what way did these gifts reveal the presence of the people who gave them to you?
