

Message Bearers

Angels are messengers of God.

You can hear an angel's message when you pay attention and really listen.

Use these questions to help you "see" and "hear" angels.

We are messengers, or angels, to one another. Write about an example of this.

The poor, the lonely, and the depressed are angels to us. How? Write down your ideas.

Reading Scripture, listening to the Word of God, paying attention to homilies, are like waiting for angels. How?

In your deepest self, you can get messages. You are an angel to yourself. Give an example based on a personal experience.

Tell about a time when you have reacted to an angel's message.