

Apology to Mother Earth

Saint Francis of Assisi called all God's creatures "sisters and brothers." Sometimes our world, which holds life-giving resources, is called "Mother" Earth. In the space below, write a poem or prayer to God expressing your sorrow for the ways people have not been good and responsible stewards of "Mother Earth."

